You will need your local police/law enforcing agency's ORI (Originating Agency Identifier) number. It is a unique number assigned to each Police Department and State Agency in New Jersey. It is used for licensing purposes, and you need to enter the ORI Number for the licensing authority that is responsible for the type of licensing you need, for your area of residence. You must first obtain an Originating Agency Identifier (ORI) Number from the local licensing police department to complete the online Firearms Applications. Contact your local police department (or the state police servicing your area if your municipality does not have its own police department) for their ORI number

You will need the following information/items for an Initial application:

- Your SBI (State Bureau of Identification) Number {found on your Firearms Purchaser Identification Card, Permit to Purchase a Handgun, or previous Permit to Carry a Handgun; also your Security Officer Registration Act or SORA number if you are so licensed)
- Upload of recent photograph (on a light background including head and shoulders)
- One (1) training record completed within ninety (90) days of initial application by the instructor with appropriate details (name, qualification date, instructor certification copies, etc.)
 - Forms S.P. 182 (Rev. 9/23) and S.P. 182a (06/23)
- Personal Information: including Social Security Number and Driver's License Number
- Background Information
- For Armored Car Applicants: Uploaded Employment Letter
- Contact Information for four (4) non-family related references
- Information on handguns to be carried (Make, Model, Serial Number, Caliber)
- $200 Application Fee

You will need the following information/items for a Renewal application Renewal:

- SBI Number, Last Name and Date of Birth for validation
- One (1) training record completed within ninety (90) days of renewal application by the instructor with appropriate details (name, qualification date, instructor certification copies, etc.)
 - Forms S.P. 182 (Rev. 9/23) and S.P. 182a (06/23)
- Any updates to Personal Information
